

Internet Security Company, E-Guardian to be participating in the “Electronic Entertainment Expo (E3) 2019.”

~In cooperation with EG Philippines, a global company to contribute to the growing gaming industry.~

TOKYO, Japan- May 29, 2019 --E-Guardian Inc., headquartered in Tokyo, Japan, along with their subsidiary company E-Guardian Philippines Inc., headquartered in Manilla, Philippines has announced that it will be participating in the “Electronic Entertainment Expo (E3) 2019” held in Los Angeles, California from June 11th till June 13th to exhibit its gaming services aimed for companies all over the world.

E-Guardian has contributed to internet safety with its one-stop internet security services ranging from internet patrolling, customer support, debugging, to vulnerability assessment.

In the gaming industry alone, E-Guardian holds over 10 years of experience in game debugging and customer support, and is now extending its support range to the international market, adding multilingual customer support, localization, and culturalization to its service line-ups.

According to Newzoo’s “Global Games Market Report,” studies have found that in correlation to the advancements of internet environment and online platforms, the gaming market is forecasted to grow into a 180 billion dollar industry by 2021.

In order to meet the growing demands, E-Guardian has decided to participate in the “E3 2019” to introduce not only their services, and but also their subsidiary company, E-Guardian Philippines, as a main global support hub for all companies looking to expand its games from and into the Japanese gaming market.

In this three day event, E-Guardian, under its “Japanese Omotenashi for a one and only Customer Success” theme, will present its booth visitors a taste of what Japanese hospitality will look like in English, Japanese, Chinese (traditional and simplified), Korean, and French for its multilingual customer support, debugging and proactive support services.

In addition, visitors will have a chance to experience and pick up Japanese “Omotenashi” items, such as Japanese fans and hand towels that will be sure to give users a cool summer breeze in the heat-filled expo.

Using its expertise and group synergy, E-Guardian will continue to provide its clients and their customers a safe, more convenient and fulfilling world under its mission of “We Guard All.”
